Says Roller Skating Cures Insomnia and Indigestion.

Clipping from The Louisville Evening Post.

Dr. Robert Gatz recommends the exercise as being highly efficient for ailments incident to sedentary living.

"I consider skating one of the healthiest of exercises." This is the statement of Dr. Robert E. Gatz, one of the most eminent practitioners in the city (Louisville). Dr. Gatz is an ardent devotee of the sport, and has not only tested its efficiency personally, but has closely observed the effects secured by a number of patients to whom he has recommended it.

"As a cure of indigestion, insomnia and loss of appetite," said Dr. Gatz, "I consider roller skating highly efficient, and in no less than half a dozen cases has secured splendid results where I have recommended it to those who suffer from the ailments incident to a sedentary life."

WILLIAM McCLELLAND.

Mr. William McClelland, one of Mason county's best known and highly respected citizens, died Saturday afternoon at 1:05 o'clock at his home near Helena, after an illness of two weeks—though he has been complaining since August last—with Bright's disease, aged 63 years.

He was born in Bourbon county January 18th, 1844, and moved to Mason county thirty-one years ago.

His widow, formerly Miss Alice Rader of Mayslick, is bereft of a kind and indulgent husband, and the community a most excellent citizen.

The funeral took place from the home this morning at 11 o'clock with services by Rev. W. R. Ivey of the First Baptist Church of this city. Interment in the Baptist Cemetery at Washington.

ANNUAL REUNION

Of Confederate Veterans Will Take Place at Pewee Valley October 31st

In the obedience to the order of adjournment of the state meeting, held in Pewee Valley in 1906, the annual meeting of the United Confederate Veterans Association for 1907 is hereby called for October 31st, at 11 o'clock, at the Kentucky Confederate Home, Pewee Valley, Ky.

A full attendance is requested, and interesting ceremonies will take place in connection with the dedication of the "L. Z. Duke Assembly Hall," which is just completed.

This beautiful structure is the noble gift of Mrs. L. Z. Duke of New York. Desirous of doing something to show her appreciation of Kentucky Confederates she generously contributed the means needed for the erection of this building. Mrs. Duke herself will be present to take part in the dedicatory ceremonies. Born in Greenup county, giving a brother on the bloody field of Shiloh to the holy cause of the Southland, her heart glows with emotion to the immortal memories of the great struggle of 1861 to 1865.

It will be an occasion of great interest to all Confederates in the state.

MAKES OWN WHISKY

BILL WILLIAMS MOST NOTED SOUTHERN MOONSHINER.

Has Long Been the Despair of Georgia Revenue Officers—Destroy His Still, but Cannot Capture Him.

Few distillery captures have been more highly prized than that made by United States Deputy Marshals Dave and Frank Riley near Oconee. Wild Bill Williams, a white man who had been a terror to the community because he was operating a very large business in open defiance to the leading citizens, was the man the officers sought, but this time, as on many other occasions, instead of fighting with his reputed steel jacket bullets, he dodged into the woods and left his still, warm from the fires of four months, to be demolished.

Wild Bill has never been captured but once. He has been a professional moonshiner for years. Frank Riley, one of the deputies who has been this long time in search of the man, managed once to locate him and he was brought into court. For some reason Wild Bill braved the circumstances and came to Macon. The deputy caught sight of him and there was a race for life.

The supposed outlaw had no weapon of defense upon him save a barlow knife, and trusted to his feet to save him. With half an hour spent in dodging corners and climbing over and under freight cars in railway yards, the deputy outran Williams and stopped him in a struggle which lasted long enough to exhaust both men. Judge Emory Speer placed him under $600 bond, and as soon as a bondsman was secured the still operator was out again stirring cane beer and sour mash in his native haunts.

A constant effort has been made by United States Marshal George White and his force of deputies to locate this man, but twice within the last six months have the officers destroyed large outfits without capturing the operator.

The next information coming from this refiner of spirits was that which led the officers into the woods near Oconee. With rifles and revolvers they crept through the spot where the outfit was in operation and were forced to amash it without having captured a single person. But since that time plans have been made which, it is believed, will result in bringing the man to answer. Reports to headquarters and recommendations following have put the officers to new uses, but Williams is at present beyond their reach.

The man who is so badly wanted is unarmored. He has no regular habits other than the one determination to operate a distillery. He is a wanderer and shows up always in the spot where he is least expected. He looks to be a brave man, is a good example of the backwoods type and is friendly and polite as the most refined. His life is more adventurous than that of the officers who search for him in swamp and woods with rifles in hand, for although it would be a prison life of severity were he captured he would not injure his fellow man. The striking characteristic is his firm belief in his profession as a harmless vocation.—Atlanta Constitution.

Farms of Sweet Peas.

Sweet peas have 86 divisions and some 300 subdivisions. In California, where almost all the flower seeds are grown, one farm of 500 acres is given up to the production of sweet peas alone. The total production yearly is about 350,000 pounds, and even when this amount is augmented by the yield from smaller farms it is almost impossible to meet the demand.

Sweet peas are the most popular flowers in America for home gardens, except the nasturtiums, and even these cannot always compete with the sweet peas.

Where country air and sunshine abound sweet peas hold unrivaled supremacy, and nasturtiums are in use for window boxes and scant little city gardens, where a small back yard must do duty for a flower lover.—Los Angeles Times.

New Master of Finance.

A young Wall street broker has been spoken of as "the new wizard of finance." Otto H. Kahn, recently has received the credit of placing a $50,000,000 issue of Pennsylvania railroad bonds on the Paris bourse. In financial circles this is considered a great achievement, many having tried and failed to accomplish it. A few days ago he was called before the interstate commerce commission and surprised its members with his knowledge of railroad and financial affairs. Mr. Kahn is 39 years old.

THEY GOT WARMED UP.

Showing the Effect of Imagination on the Human Mind.

Mark Twain is responsible for many a practical joke, and he also is known to hold decided views in regard to mental suggestion. One of the latest stories told of him in the newspapers of the day has direct bearing upon the matter of relationship of body and mind.

Mr. Clemens, in company with two friends, went on a hunting expedition, and intending to remain for some days in the woods, they carried with them provisions and a small, round, sheet iron wood stove, for it was in November, and the nights were chilly.

The first day Mark remained about the camp, putting things in order, while his two friends went in search of game.

Toward evening, having put things in apple-pie order, Mark sat down on a box, chose a book from several which he had brought along, and was soon lost between the covers. It had grown rather dark meanwhile, so he lighted a candle and placed it beside him on the box. Suddenly he heard a sound as of some one coming through the underbrush. This reminded him that he should have had a fire built in the little stove, because the night was frosty, and his companions would feel the need of a warm fire on their arrival. Hastily grasping the candle, he stood it on its end inside the stove and closed the door, which was fitted with small windows of mica.

Just then his two friends rushed in, shivering, and, remarking that it was beastly cold, they each in turn held their hands over the little stove, from which the light as of a brisk fire brightly streamed. "How kind of Mark to build a fire for us!" said one.

"Well, he knew we would be cold," said the second.

After a few moments Mark ventured to inquire if they were getting warm, and upon being assured that they were now quite comfortable, he opened the door of the stove and brought forth the diminutive candle, placed it upon the soap box at his side, and resumed his reading.—Youth's Companion.

Why Blue Monday.

"Monday is the bluest day of the week for me," said the physician to the man who had been waiting half an hour to see him. "I won't try to put up a bluff and tell you that my office is so crowded every day in the week, for it isn't; but I get a list of office patients nearly every Monday. Every physician of any reputation has the same experience. Why? All on account of Sunday. People do all sorts of foolish things on that day, because they have time to, and they pay for it. In the first place, people eat indigestible, rich food on Sunday that they would not think of eating on any other day. They eat too much also; in fact, some people nibble away all day, and in consequence they have indigestion—for no one has indigestion so quickly or so acutely as the person who is used to regular, wholesome living, and once in a long while tries the unwholesome food—and a trip to the doctor's always in order Monday. Then, again, Sunday gives a person more time to think of his ills. A man who will stoically bear a pain on working days and drive it away by his very snubbing of it will get frightened at the slightest ache on Sunday. He gets to thinking about it and comes to the conclusion that it is a serious symptom. So he goes in to see a physician Monday.—N. Y. Press.

On Second Thought.

"Don't you remember, you said you would drown yourself if I didn't marry you?"

"Yes, I remember; how foolish I was!"

"Do you consider that it was foolish?"

"Yes; I should have threatened to drown myself if you did marry me."—Houston Post.

School Improvement League Organized There Saturday Afternoon

A very enthusiastic mass-meeting of citizens was held at Sardis last Saturday afternoon. The Sardis District School Improvement League was organized and includes the following Districts: Corbin, Sardis, Longfellow, Murphysville, Sunrise, Pleasant Ridge and Arthursville.

Prof. Paul Coryell of Sardis called the meeting to order, discussed the advantages of a graded school and introduced W. C. Coryell, of the Mayersville High School, who is President of the Mason County School Improvement League, and was Chairman of the meeting.

Superintendent Wells discussed the needs of School Improvement and the plans of this County League.

Of Confederate Veterans Will Take Place at Pewee Valley October 31st

In the obedience to the order of adjournment of the state meeting, held in Pewee Valley in 1906, the annual meeting of the United Confederate Veterans Association for 1907 is hereby called for October 31st, at 11 o'clock, at the Kentucky Confederate Home, Pewee Valley, Ky.

A full attendance is requested, and interesting ceremonies will take place in connection with the dedication of the "L. Z. Duke Assembly Hall," which is just completed.

This beautiful structure is the noble gift of Mrs. L. Z. Duke of New York. Desirous of doing something to show her appreciation of Kentucky Confederates she generously contributed the means needed for the erection of this building. Mrs. Duke herself will be present to take part in the dedicatory ceremonies. Born in Greenup county, giving a brother on the bloody field of Shiloh to the holy cause of the Southland, her heart glows with emotion to the immortal memories of the great struggle of 1861 to 1865.

It will be an occasion of great interest to all Confederates in the state.

A CRAZY MAN Found Eating an Egg, Shell and All—People are Amazed.

A crazy man was recently found eating an egg, shell and all and it was declared additional proof of his insanity, as every one realizes that the shell of an egg has no food value, and is both indigestible and injurious. It is just as crazy for a sane person to swallow a lot of cod liver oil to get the benefit of the medicinal elements contained therein, as for the crazy man to eat the egg, shell and all.

Scientists agree that the oil or greasy part of cod liver oil has no medicinal value whatever, and only upsets the stomach and retards recovery, but it is the medicinal elements enveloped in the cod's livers and their oil which represent all the tonic and curative power of that famous old remedy.

Vinol contains all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, but is entirely free from oil, and is therefore, the best strength creator and tonic reconstructer possible to obtain.

The reason Vinol is so far superior to the old-fashioned cod liver oil emulsions is because it is made by scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cod's livers, combining with peptonate of iron all the medicinal, healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil.

Vinol is unexcelled to restore health and create strength for run-down, debilitated, tired, overworked people, old people, weak women, nursing mothers, pany, ailing children, convalescents, or for people suffering with hard colds, heaving coughs, incipient consumption and bronchitis. Try it. If it fails we will return your money.

MRS. BROWN AND KING ED.

Lexington Woman Now Suing For Divorce From Maysville Man Talks of Marital Episode

Louisville Times.

NEW YORK, October 19.—Not at all flattered by the attention paid her by King Edward, even if it did lead her plain American husband to seek a divorce, Mrs. Margaret Johnson Brown has returned to this country to again take up the details of her business on West Thirty-first street, where she conducts a shop for the sale of antiques and Old Country furniture.

Mrs. Brown told a reporter about meeting King Edward at the theater, an incident that has caused much talk. Her father is European agent of R. Hoe & Co., and she and her husband went to London to visit him. With some friends she went one night to Drury Lane Theater, and the party occupied a box almost opposite that of the King.

Mrs. Brown said:

"During the third and last act a member of the King's party came to our box, and, after being introduced, inquired if I was not an American, and upon my affirmative reply said that the King always liked to meet Americans, and invited the entire party to the royal box, which invitation was, of course, accepted. That ended the entire incident. We were all introduced in turn, and after some of the usual conventional conversation returned to our own box.

"I am a plain American woman; I love my country; I care nothing whatever for royalty, King Edward or any other Englishman. The King Edward incident has nothing to do with my marital troubles. Mr. Brown and I could never have lived together had we never seen or heard of King Edward."

The King Edward incident would never have become public had not Mrs. Brown, who naturally was flattered by King Edward's attention, told a few intimate friends among the gentler sex, who failed to observe the pact of secrecy placed upon them and let the cat out of the bag. Mrs. Brown is a very handsome woman—tall and with an abundance of golden hair. She has always been known as one of Kentucky's handsomest women.

READ THIS AND PROFIT THEREBY!
This is a trying time of the year. Many discomforts arise from the heat. The best way to be comfortable is by bathing often, at least twice daily, and by using a liberal quantity of talcum powder. By bathing often one keeps the skin clean and the pores open, thereby allowing the entire body to "breathe freely," which means perfect health.
The best soap to use for the bath and toilet is Picard's Complexion Soap, a non-injurious, healthful soap. Talcum powder keeps the skin cool, allays heat rash, stops chafing and is an excellent toilet requisite. We have a number of kinds.

BALLOONATICS

Who Won Championship and The Lahm Cup For Long Distance Flying in Maysville Saturday

They Elude The Ledger Reporters and Deliver the Goods to Cincinnati Enquirer

The Editor of The Public Ledger last Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock received a long-distance telephone message from The Cleveland Press that Aeronauts J. C. McCoy and Capt. Charles DeForest Chandler of the U. S. Army Signal Corps were aboard C. and O. passenger train No. 7 due at Maysville at 4:12 p. m. and to interview them fully as to their adventurous air voyage and send all details to The Press for publication.

The remarkable flight of Aeronauts McCoy and Chandler in Signal Corps balloon No. 10 broke all records and won the Lahm cup for distance, having sailed from St. Louis Thursday at 4:15 p. m. and landed in Roane county, W. Va., at 1:30 p. m. Friday making the distance of 475 miles in 20 hours and 15 minutes. The record-distance before was 402 miles.

The Editor of The Ledger phoned The Press that he would see McCoy and Chandler and with local reporter G. W. Oldham they boarded No. 7 at Market street at 4:12. As we, only had 7 minutes to get a column or more of "interview," as soon as we boarded the train we both searched it from end to end calling out for "Capt. Chandler! Capt. Chandler!" and asking every man who looked like a high-flyer if he was Capt. Chandler. All denied the soft impeachment, even Capt. Chandler himself, who was seated snugly with Mr. McCoy; but they both kept mum and the train pulled out without us getting a word about the great balloon trip.

Messrs. McCoy and Chandler were making a hurry trip straight to The Cincinnati Enquirer office where they arrived at 7:30 o'clock, and therefore Sunday's Enquirer contained a full account of the great race and a "scoop" over all the newspapers in the world about the greatest balloon flight in history.

There were two additions last evening to the Forest Avenue M. E. Church.

Rev. H. H. Moore of Vanceburg is conducting a revival service at the Sand Hill Christian Church. He is a pleasing and instructive speaker with a Gospel message. These services are enriched with the sweet singing of Mrs. Moore.

TOBACCO STORAGE

Immense Quantities in Louisville and Cincinnati Warehouses

All records are expected to be broken this winter in the amount of tobacco stored and handled by Louisville warehouses, it being estimated that already about 26,000 hogheads are in the houses, and the new crops have not yet come in.

The placing of the warehouse for the storing of samples of Equity tobacco in Winchester will not, it is believed, effect the amount of the tobacco shipped to Louisville, Cincinnati and Mayfield, and they will still remain the central storing points of Equity pool. Estimates placed by local authorities upon the amount of the weed in the 1907 pool shows a decided increase over last year's pool, probably amounting all told to 50,000 hogheads.

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? The cause may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, dragging sensations, flatulency, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs. No other medicine in the country has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female ills.

Miss J. F. Walsh, of 328 W. 36th St., New York City, writes:—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been of inestimable value in restoring my health. I suffered from female illness which caused dreadful headaches, dizziness, and dull pains in my back, but your medicine soon brought about a change in my general condition, built me up and made me perfectly well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Failing and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and organic diseases. It is invaluable in preparing for child-birth and during the Change of Life. It cures Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, and invigorates the whole system.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.
